West Asian & African Region

NACE International is pleased to welcome the new Jubail Saudi Arabia Section. Approximately 30 NACE members representing several companies in the Al-Jubail industrial city area attended an inaugural dinner meeting on July 29 at the Intercontinental Hotel, Al-Jubail.

Jubail Saudi Arabia Section Chair Ali Al-Hazemi welcomed the participants and discussed the strategic importance of having a NACE section in Jubail, as the city has a high concentration of major industries in the region. "As pioneer members of NACE Jubail, tonight you are part of a history-making ceremony," he said. He also stressed that the section is being established at a time when the city is in the midst of a massive program of development to establish a second phase of the industrial city.

The new section is relevant to the city's growth because a large number of structures with steel-reinforced concrete and prestressed concrete will be constructed. In addition, the aging infrastructure is one of the most serious problems faced by the city's existing plants, most of which were built more than 20 years ago. As much of the aging infrastructure reaches the end of its designed lifetime, the emphasis is on maintaining and extending the life of these valuable assets. The NACE Jubail Saudi Arabia Section will provide a platform to generate ideas for addressing these concerns by bringing about greater awareness of the causes of corrosion and its control.

NACE West Asian & African Region Chair Abdullah Al-Rumaih gave a presentation on the importance of NACE membership and the benefits of joining the local section. This was followed by a discussion on the vision and future activities of the section. After closing the formal meeting, the attendees enjoyed a buffet dinner to celebrate the new NACE section.
